COMMUNITY CARE BY THE NUMBERS

COMMUNITY CONTRIBUTION BY THE NUMBERS

CARING FOR OUR COMMUNITY

- In 2023, we earned a four-star rating (the highest given in New Mexico) for overall quality and patient satisfaction from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. We were one of only four hospitals in New Mexico (and the only one in southeastern New Mexico) to receive this rating.
- Our team was proud to be honored in 2023 by the United Way of Eastern New Mexico for the generosity we showed in donating to the organization and giving back to the community.
- We have been designated a Baby-Friendly® hospital because of our care for mothers and babies, which includes support for breastfeeding.
- We operate more than 2,399 pieces of medical equipment to provide care to the community.

COMMUNITY OVERSIGHT

Plains Regional Medical Center is overseen by a Board of Trustees made up of the following community members, along with Bill Priest, our hospital chief executive officer:

- Lonnie Leslie, chair
- Brad Bender
- Chris Bryant
- Col. Danielle Cermak
- Leslie Donaldson, MD
- Paul Ellis
- Priscilla Garcia
- Alan Kinlund
- Rev. Anthony Mahan
- Joyce Pollard
- Larry Roberts

In 2023, our Retail Pharmacy filled more than 126,000 prescriptions.
