Subject: New Routine Vision Agreement with Superior Vision

Presbyterian Health Plan, Inc. and Presbyterian Insurance Company, Inc. (Presbyterian) are pleased to announce that they have entered in to a new agreement with Superior Vision, who will begin administering the routine vision benefit effective July 1, 2020.

Superior Vision has successfully managed a statewide network of routine vision providers. They will offer routine vision services, for all members regardless of age, through their network of vision professionals, including Native American service professionals, for Presbyterian's Centennial Care and Medicare Dual Plus members. Providers may contact Superior Vision directly at svmedicalmanagementnetwork@versanthealth.com to become a contracted provider or verify their contract status.

If you have any questions about this service, please do not hesitate to use the information below to contact your Provider Network Operations relationship executive.

Thank you for your continued partnership.
