

Love where you work. Love where you live.

Experience Clovis, New Mexico

Situated near the Texas border and known for its early ties to rock 'n roll, Clovis, New Mexico, is home to Plains Regional Medical Center, a not-for-profit hospital with 100 licensed beds that serves the eastern New Mexico and West Texas areas, managed by Presbyterian Healthcare Services and guided by a community-based Board of Trustees.

The Community

With a population of more than 45,000, Clovis is a family-friendly city that neighbors the Cannon Air Force Base with a community that has:

- Public and private schools, including Clovis Municipal Schools and Clovis Christian Schools, both with grades K-12
- Various higher education options, including Clovis Community College that sits on a 100-acre campus and offers more than 60 degrees and certificates, and Wayland Baptist College at Clovis, which focuses on working adults who are wanting to obtain a bachelors or master's degree. Also in nearby Portales, NM, is Eastern New Mexico University, a 4-year university offering bachelors and graduate degrees.
- Move-in ready homes, rental properties, apartment complexes, as well as land for building, ranching and farming
- Multiple churches of various religious affiliations

Things to Do

Clovis is known for having one of the busiest community calendars in the state, as the city offers a variety of events situated around the city's culture, history and outdoor recreational facilities. With more than 300 days of sunshine, there are many things to do in Clovis, such as:

- Spending time with the family at the 3,200-acre Ned Houk Park that offers basketball courts, baseball fields, an archery range, motor sports racetrack, trails for ATVs, a disc golf course, a model airplane flying area, three lakes and a picnic area
- Attending the iconic annual Draggin' Main Music Festival every June – this week-long festival combines different genre of music, drive-in food stops, tours of Norman Petty Studios and classic car shows
- Experiencing the arts at a performance at the Clovis Community College Cultural Art Series
- Golfing at the 18-hole Colonial Park Golf Course
- Antiquing and shopping in Downtown Clovis
- Participating in city-league recreation at the Roy Walker Community Center that has two full-sized gymnasiums for youth, men, women and mixed league play in volleyball and basketball
- Cooling off at the Clovis Aquatic Center, Potter Pool or the Hillcrest Splash Park
- Day trips to water and snow skiing, mountains, lakes and other New Mexico historical and cultural sites

